Distinguished Alumni Award

Description

The Distinguished Alumni Award is the most prestigious offered by Pitt Community College. It recognizes alumni with outstanding and uncommon achievement in one's profession, in civic/community affairs, and/or in service to the Alumni Association and/or the College. Recipients should have adhered to standards of moral and ethical conduct that would cause the College to be proud to present the award to the recipient as a role model for students and other alumni. The individual must be a person of such integrity, stature, demonstrated ability and renown that the faculty, staff, students and alumni of PCC will take pride in, and be inspired by, his or her recognition. Individual must have contributed time, talent, or money to one or more programs to benefit Pitt Community College or the PCC Foundation/Alumni Association. The definition of service will be left to the discretion of the Awards Committee of the Alumni Association. Up to two awards can be granted annually. If there are unusual circumstances to suggest an additional award, the Awards Committee may vote to do so.

Eligibility

This award is presented to those who have attended Pitt Community College for a minimum of two semesters, completed their educational goal(s), and meet criteria for alumni status as defined by the bylaws of the PCC Alumni Association. Current employees of the College are excluded from consideration. Those person who have been inducted into the Association as Honorary Alumni may also be eligible. Receiving this award does not prevent one from receiving any other alumni awards if so selected.

Exclusion from Eligibility

Current employees of the College are excluded from consideration for this award. Trustees serving current terms, members of the alumni board of directors and their spouses, and PCC Foundation Board members are also not eligible to receive alumni awards. The Alumni Awards Selection Committee reserves the right to reassign categories of nomination if deemed applicable. The honoree may not receive the award a second time within a 10 year period.

Deadline

Nominations may be submitted at any time throughout the year, however to be considered for the current year, they must be postmarked by April 29th of each year.

Presentation of Awards

The awards will be presented at the Annual Alumni Awards Celebration, May 23, 2016.
